

Phil. I believe you; for as it is put in Hudibras:

"He that complies against his will

Is of his own opinion still."

I find consolation, however, in the fact that in controversies and in taking mineral waters, it is the after-effects that are the true ones.